School Board Policy #200

“Enrollment of Students”

- The School District of Haverford Township requires verification of continued residency in the township and confirmation of contact information for students in fifth (5th) and eighth (8th) grade who plan to attend Haverford Middle School and Haverford High School in September 2023.
- In accordance with Board policy #200, Enrollment of Students, the District requires each student's residency to be verified by parents/guardians or other adults with whom the student resides before June 30 2023.
- We will begin collecting verification documents from families on April 17, 2023. Families can submit their verification documents through their PowerSchool parent account (PowerSchool Parent Accounts).
- Each student verification requires two (2) acceptable documents, as outlined in the policy, in their entirety with the address and name(s) clearly indicated. Examples of acceptable documents include:
 - Deed
 - Settlement Statement
 - Current Lease Agreement
 - Current Property Tax Bill
 - Current Utility Bill
 - Current Credit Card Bill
 - PennDOT Identification Card
- Please contact Mrs. D'Avella if you have any questions md'avella@haverfordsd.net
