

Fundations Choice Board

Pick one choice from each column.

Trick Words Use the "Fun Ways to Practice Trick Words" document to practice the words in the box.	Dictation A grown-up says a word. You should echo the word, tap it, write it, and mark the word.	Word Hunt Use a book from home to look for words that include the sounds & patterns we've studied.
Unit 6: only, house, move, right, place, together	joke scrape flute slide sunrise expire baseball hopeful	Make a list of v-e (vowel-consonant-e) syllable words (ex. drive, save) and mark them.
Unit 7: eight, large, every, family, night, carry, something, change, city	cry pro me fry tulip locate predict behave	Make a list of open-syllable words (ex. fly, cry, hi, beside, relax, solo) and mark them.
Unit 8-9 Words: world, answer, different, picture, learn, earth, father, brother, mother	charm burn born verb acorn return party ruler	Make a list of r-controlled syllable words with ar, or/ore, er, ir, ur (ex. park, chore, dirt, term) and mark them.
Unit 10 Words: great, country, away, America, school, thought	drain clay may faint complain mermaid playpen raindrop	Make a list of ai and ay double-syllable words (ex. pair, play) and mark them.

Writing Choice Board

Personal Narrative Write a personal narrative about an event that happened to you. Include a beginning, middle, and end.	Friendly Letter Write a letter to a friend, teacher, or family member. Include the date, greeting (Dear ____), body, closing (ex. Sincerely), and signature.	List Make a list (ex. sports teams, ice cream flavors, favorite books, etc.).
Book Report Write a book report about a book you've read. Include the title, author, summary, and your opinion/recommendation.	How-To Write a set of directions to explain how to do something (ex. make a sandwich). Use words like first, next, then, last.	Realistic Fiction Story Write a realistic fiction story that is made up but could happen. Include a beginning, middle, and end.
Spring Haiku Poem A haiku has 3 lines with 5 syllables - 7 syllables - 5 syllables. Flowers are blooming Roses, tulips, sunflowers Smell them in the air	Squiggle Story Draw a squiggly line on your paper. Turn the squiggle into an illustration and write a story with a beginning, middle, and end to match it.	Acrostic Poem Write a word vertically. Next to each letter, write words or phrases that connect to the topic. Digging in the yard Out for a walk Gets a treat to eat

Reading Choice Board

Read for 20 minutes using a book from home, a library book, Raz Kids, PebbleGo, etc. Then, pick an activity to complete from the board.

Make a Venn Diagram Draw a Venn Diagram to compare 2 characters, settings, animals, etc. from the text. Think about how they're alike and different.	Summarize Think about the important parts of the story. Summarize in writing or by making a video.	Create a New Ending Make predictions to write an extended or alternate ending to the story. Think, how would you have written it differently or what would you have happen next?
Make Connections Call or email a family member/ friend and tell them about the book you read and a connection you made to it.	Analyze Story Elements Make a story map that includes the characters, setting(s), problem(s), and solution(s).	Analyze Characters Choose a character or two and create a poster or graphic organizer to show their character traits (ex. brave, friendly, helpful, etc.).
Make a Collage Draw pictures, cut out pictures from magazines, or print clip art to create a collage that represents what happened in the text.	Non-Fiction Fact vs. Opinion Make a bookmark that has 2 facts from the text on one side and 2 of your opinions on the other.	Non-Fiction Text Features Hunt Look for non-fiction text features (ex. captions, photographs, headings, glossary, etc.). Explain to a family member how they helped you to understand the information in the text.