

41st Annual Evening of Jazz

You don't want to miss the 41st Annual Evening of Jazz - Friday, March 4th, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the Haverford High School Auditorium.

Advance, reduced-price tickets can be purchased before February 25th using the attached order form. Save $2 per ticket; save even more with a family pack offered only through February 25th. Tickets can also be purchased at the door or online at www.eventbrite.com (search "Haverford Jazz").

This wonderful night of music features the Jazz Ensemble, Jazz Lab Band, and Jazz Combo from Haverford High School, and the Jazz Ensemble and Jazz Fords from Haverford Middle School.

Tony Miceli, the 2022 Jazz Artist-in-Residence, will perform with all of ensembles. Internationally renowned jazz vibraphonist, Mr. Miceli has established himself as one of the primary voices on the mallet instrument, winning hearts and minds wherever he plays. At All About Jazz, Victor Schermer describes him as "...a vibraphonist of astonishing virtuosity, musical resilience, and inventiveness. His vibes playing is nothing short of phenomenal." He is a sought-after recording artist with recent releases including Invitation, an album of solos; 4,042 Miles, with vibraphonist David Friedman; and Alone Together, a collaboration with violinist Diane Monroe. Mr. Miceli has also worked with Philadelphia-based musicians on Monkadelphia and Can't Find My Way Home and with Dutch-based jazz quartet Thelonious4, in addition to performances with many other top musicians including David Liebman, Jimmy Bruno, John Blake, Steve Slagle and Larry McKenna.

A member of the jazz faculty at Temple University and University of the Arts, and a guest lecturer at the Curtis Institute of Music, Mr. Miceli delivers master classes all over the world as well as promoting the vibraphone on vibesworkshop.com, a virtual meeting place and teaching tool serving over 4,000 student and professional members. He is the co-creator of the World Vibes Congress, a formal gathering of players who share the desire to bring public awareness to the vibraphone, and is a member of Team Omega, an elite group of four vibes players that also includes David Friedman, Joe Locke and Stephan Harris.
